Sparsholt Cof E Primary School Policy for Special Educational Needs and Disability

AIMS

- 1. At Sparsholt School all children are expected to reach their potential whatever their starting point.
- 2. We will promote children's self esteem and value effort and success, however relative.
- 3. The needs of individuals will be recognised through continuous assessment. Barriers to learning will be identified and a plan put in place to overcome them.
- 4. The School will promote the well being of all children.
- 5. Discrimination at every level will be challenged so that the School can fulfill its MOSAIC values.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- 1. The Headteacher and Governors share responsibilities for monitoring the SEND provision within school.
- 2. There is a designated Special Educational Needs governor who monitors SEN activity in school. She meets with the SENCO, 'fact finds' regularly and reports to governors at least annually. This governor is currently Mr Bennett
- 3. The Acting Head teacher is currently SENCO. She is responsible for monitoring the progress of SEN children through the tracking systems.

Lynn Laver – I.laver@sparsholt.hants.sch.uk

- 4. Teachers are responsible for the early identification of learning needs and share with the SENCO the duty to plan support. This will be recorded on a Personal Plan or and our own intervention form for those who need any additional short term support.
- 5. The SENCO has the responsibility to keep Personal plans and interventions under constant review.
- 6. Teachers have the responsibility to differentiate the learning tasks in their classes to meet the needs of their pupils and offer appropriate levels of challenge to all groups.
- 7. LSAs have a key role in the delivery of planned intervention and support in class.

PROCEDURES

- 1. Every child has an equal right of access to the National Curriculum and our school Local Offer details what we can provide at Sparsholt School. For those with most special needs a Personal Plan will be prepared and reviewed every 8 weeks. Parents are informed and sign the forms each time.
- 2. The special educational needs of children are assessed through comparison of each child's outcome to the average of his/her peers.
- 3. Where significant deficits are identified pupils will be given specific tests in reading, spelling and maths. These tests will be administered sympathetically and due confidentiality will be maintained.
- 4. All children are screened for dyslexia when they are aged 5 using the DEST test and an appropriate programme may be introduced to those at risk.
- 5. All children undertake termly and end of year tests in reading, writing and mathematics. The results are monitored by the Headteacher. Children who are not making expected progress are referred to as focus children in Sparsholt School. Focus children are identified each half term and specific support is planned by the teacher and DHT. Programmes of support are usually delivered by the learning support staff and may involve withdrawal from class for short periods on a daily, weekly, "booster" (eg. twice a week for six weeks) or occasional basis.

- 6. Where the special learning needs of a child are deep seated, the school involves the educational psychology service and when parents agree, a formal assessment is made.
- 7. The emotional needs of learners will be met through the interventions of one trained Emotional Literacy Support Assistant (ELSA) working closely with teachers.
- 8. The School works with the Speech Therapy, health and bilingual support services and will deliver jointly agreed programmes when the need arises.
- Statements for children with severe SEN needs have now been replaced with EHCP plans. Education, Health and Care plan, which puts children and parents at the heart of the plan. Teachers, care agencies, parents and children work together to support individual needs.
- 10. Staff will always receive up to date training as required to deliver SEN programmes effectively. This is a high priority in the professional development of staff and LSAs through the annual appraisal and performance management cycle.
- 11. At Sparsholt C of E Primary School we follow the statutory procedures outlined in the New Code of Practice : 0 25 years and the County Inclusion Policy.
- 12. Governors report to parents once per year on SEN provision. This is via the governors newsletter.

COMPLAINTS

Parents of children with SEND follow the same procedures as parents of other children in the school. However, if a parent has a complaint about the provision for their child with SEND they are encouraged to speak to their child's class teacher first. (The school's Complaints Procedures are laid out in the school's website). If further discussion is needed, the SENCO will be involved and ultimately the Head Teacher and Governors.

Class activities are regularly differentiated for those children with Special Educational Needs. Support may also be provided by a trained team of Learning Support Assistants (LSAs) in the class setting or through individual/small group withdrawal support.

If it is felt by the Headteacher that the National Curriculum is inappropriate for a child, an individual curriculum may be formulated. This will be done only after full consultation with parents and external agencies.

Transfers to and from other schools

When pupils transfer to or from other schools, every care is taken to ensure that a full picture of their needs is reported. This involves careful liaison with the SENCO of the transferring schools and detailed records are compiled.

In the case of Year 6 children, a secondary school representative, Year Head and/or Special Needs Department representative, makes several visits to this school prior to the transfer, so that the secondary staffs are fully informed about the pupils they will receive.

The SENCO attends regular pyramid SEN meetings and a local liaison group comprising representatives of the SEN departments of other local schools, as well as SENCO circles. The purpose of these meetings is to discuss new developments and current procedures in the field of Special Educational Needs. The SENCO attends the County's annual SENCO conference.
