

Resources to support reading at home

Reading is an essential part of a child's education and as they say, "A child who reads will be an adult who thinks."

We as a school want to ensure that the children are able to keep reading, especially for pleasure.

Below are a number of high quality reading resources that can be accessed for free and used to support children's reading at home.

The Hampshire Library Service

The Hampshire Library Service have a vast range of ebooks and audiobooks for children and adults.

OxfordOwl

Oxford Owl's free eBook library for children was developed for children aged 3–11 years old, with the goal of helping children learn and love to read. If you're not sure which level is appropriate for your child, you can start by having them take a simple test.

Browse selections by age group, reading level, book type, or series. Genres include fiction, myths and legends, poetry, and more.

Amazon's Free Children's eBooks

Best Sellers in Children's eBooks. These are frequently updated with new titles. From young children to teens, there's something for every young reader. Of course, you will need a Kindle to download and read these titles.

Book Trust
